

CARLSBAD LOCAL ITEMS

Jim Tulk returned to his ranch, going out yesterday in his car.

Wednesday, F. E. Ferre was here from Artesia looking up business.

B. E. Neblett returned Saturday night from a trip to Fort Worth, Tex.

T. A. Gray came in from his ranch at the mouth of Big canyon last night.

T. S. Bingham and J. M. Blake, of Lovington, were in town this first of the week.

Will Woerner and J. W. Whiteley came in with Elbert Shipp last night from Knowles.

Mrs. C. N. Jones was taken very ill yesterday morning while at breakfast, but is better today.

W. P. Barnett and Ralph Thayer were down from Thayer ranch two or three days this week.

Jane Lambe, leading lady of the Craddock Rule Stock Company arrived in Carlsbad Monday.

Miss Ida Bell Gay came in from the ranch Friday and is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. D. Ekman.

J. C. Hunt of Bixwood, who operated on Saturday at the Eddy County hospital for appendicitis.

Born, at 6 o'clock this morning Friday, December 10th to Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis, nice baby boy.

Mr. Wright, 50 tope, father of Claude and Walter Wright, was on the streets the first of the week.

Conductor Kelly is the man on Carlsbad to Roswell on the go-round, taking train Friday relatives.

Mrs. Joe Andrew was released from the Anderson stadium Saturday day and has been making all well.

Mrs. Biglow and Mrs. Truett, of Lakewood, spent today in Carlsbad doing some Christmas shopping.

Mrs. Paul Gray moved from visit to Roswell Tuesday and is spending a few days in Grand Canyon.

Pete Etcheverry is down from Roswell, yesterday evening and is spending by his old residence. Wednesday.

Ace Christmas and Cupcake Monument have it with Ed Kuyken, Luen can buy a new Buick Six.

Miss Cora Rogers, Lakewood, has spent the past week visiting Carlsbad with Mrs. S. Hamilton and others.

Miss Edna Kuyken returned to her home on Monday evening after spending a very poor week with Miss John Avery.

Mrs. Lee from Lakewood has been in town the past week on medical treatment. She is next of the Manion House.

Mrs. John Slaughter surprised her relatives note by accompanying her husband. They arrived early on the train from Peoria.

Mrs. Leslie L. Smith, Portales, who has been visiting either Mr. Gee and family, last returned to her home Monday.

Mrs. Jim Tulk and her, Mrs. Nettie, are planning to visit Christmas with their son, Jim, in Bedford Springs, Texas, next Tuesday.

W. A. Crowder, a brother-in-law of the Lucas boys, came in Colorado Tuesday evening for a short vacation, and accompanied Williams to the ranch Wednesday.

CHILD'S HIP BROKEN.

Allen Heard Ezell, the little two-year-old son of Rupert Ezell, was brought to town last Friday with a broken thigh. The little fellow was at Orla at the time of the accident and although no one saw the child at the time it is supposed a horse kicked the little fellow, breaking the thigh in a zigzag way. He is at the home of Mr. Cudd and his aunt, Gladys Cooper, is looking after him. The leg has been looked after and is being stretched to keep the injured limb from being the shorter, as it showed to be shorter when they brought him to the physician here. He will be kept in this way for fourteen days.

D. G. Grantham and family are looking forward to a very pleasant Christmas week as Miss Camille, Mrs. Seder and the grand baby will join them at that time.

J. Floyd Hart and wife are returning to Carlsbad tomorrow night.

They have spent the past five weeks visiting in Illinois and Iowa, and have mentioned frequent snow storms.

They have been visiting this last week in Pawnee Rock, Kansas.

W. H. Shelby, a prosperous fruit grower of Roswell, also representing a popular shoe house, was here Sunday.

December 30th, on Thursday afternoon, at the court house, a meeting of the members of the Eddy county hospital association will be held for the election of a new board.

Henry Jones has laid his crutches aside and was on the streets this week. He says his foot is very sore yet, but he can get around slowly.

Miss Eva V. Riggs, of Colorado Springs, Colorado, arrived Wednesday and is stopping at the Bates hotel.

She is here for climatic benefits and Carlsbad spring water.

Monroe Lee was in from the Pa. the early part of the week.

W. A. Binder of the U. S. survey was down from Roswell Wednesday.

He is here on official business and in his conversation with a Current reporter mentioned that Mrs. Mumford, who was here two years ago with her husband, died recently in California. She was very favorably known in Carlsbad.

A. M. Hovey and son, William, will leave in a few days for the east, where Mr. Hovey will be engaged in his official capacity as publicity agent for the Santa Fe railroad. He will also visit relatives and friends while absent.

The new barber shop is now ready for occupancy and George Beckett, cleaning windows and starting things up this morning, expecting to move and get everything in shape today and give each of his customers a new shave in the new shop tomorrow.

Rube Knowles was in town Monday.

He came by way of Knowles and looked over the phone line all the way to town and says its in fine shape now.

June Grammer was in from the ranch Friday and Saturday.

For Xmas candy visit THE SWEET SHOP.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Record, who are near Monument were here Wednesday. They were making a trip only into a cattle ranch they have about 100 miles the other side of the Mountain on the Continental Divide, and are driving their Ford.

Fred Lunes from the head of Black river, came to town Wednesday for a visit with his parents, John Lunes and wife, also his brother Jack. They are from the Russell country this week.

Perry Cooper, who has been with Bill Lusk on his ranch near El Paso, and

Monday, running the Abiquiu

Fort, thinks that a new attorney will still be able to find him good law.

Harr Barnes is spending a few days at home. He has been at the Harkins camp working with Mr. Boyd, who is still well on the ranch.

Dan Lucas and wife and son, Jack came down from Roswell the first of the week and are visiting with Mr.

and Mrs. John Lucas.

Mrs. Effie Corder, being ill Monday

Tuesday Mrs. Mary Reed Miller came to her duties those days at the

W. A. Crowder, a brother-in-law of the Lucas boys, came in Colorado

Tuesday evening for a short vacation, and accompanied Williams to the ranch Wednesday.

That ristma Dollar

HOW DO YOU WANT YOUR CHAS DOLLARS GO?

COME IN SEE OUR ROCK OF

HOLAY QODS
JEWIRY, NAVAJO
BLAETS, READ
WOR ETC.

GIR PRICES, IN
YOU BE CONVINC

CORNDRUG TORE

Our Motto: SQUARE DEAL TO ALL

SHOP
EARLY

SHOP
EARLY

Shop Early

Begin at once with your Christmas Shopping and you will find the task only a pleasure

"Shop in the Fore Noon"

IN OUR ASSEMBLAGE OF PRACTICAL THINGS FOR GIFTS, YOU WILL BE SURPRISED AT THE SMALL COST.

SELECT YOUR GIFT NOW AND IT MAY BE CALLED FOR OR DELIVERED AT ANY TIME YOU SPECIFY.

A Store of Plenty
An Assemblage of Practical Things
An Ideal Place to Trade

Joyce-Pruitt Co.
"We Want Your Trade"

SHOP
EARLY

MONTGOMERY-KENOWEEN
TELEPHONE LINE

Parties desiring to phone Knowles, may do so to be certain to reach Knowles over this line upon which we are not overcharged.

Mr. Elmer A. Morris, the dry-goods merchant, arrived in Carlsbad today, and is now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Moore, from Roswell, arrived in Carlsbad today, and are now at the Hotel Kenoween and rooms with Mrs. W. B. Mahan.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE

The following is the program for the Home and Social Association meeting to be held at the Hotel Kenoween.

The lecture will be delivered by Mrs.

Charmian A. Becker, member of the Board of Trusteeship of the First Church of Christ, Roswell, New Mexico.

Music solo, Miss Ruth Cross.

Piano solo, Miss Dorothy Lee.

Dr. M. C. Buckley and Mrs. Karen Drury by seventh and eighth grade girls.

Piano solo, Miss Margarette Young.

Double bass solo, Mr. R. McAllister, at Hotel Kenoween.

String solo, Miss Margarette Young.

String quartet, Roswell Christian Church.

String quartet, Roswell Christian Church.